AWARD

The Govt. of India in the Ministry of Labour in exercise of the powers conferred on them U/S 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) have referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication as per their Order No. L-12011/70/78-DIIA dated the 17th October, 1978.

SCHEDULE

Whether the demand of the workman for payment of 1/3rd regular wages paid to full time members of subordinate staff to Smt. Maheshwari Devi, Part-time Frash-cum-Water Carrier, Chainpur Branch of the Punjab National Bank in Palamau Dist. is justified? If so, to what relief is the workman concerned entitled?

The General Secretary of the All India Punjab National Bank Employees Association who has sponsored this dispute on behalf of the employees has filed their written statement of claim stating that the employee herein was appointed as a Frash-cum-Water Carrier with effect from January '74 her appointment coinciding with the date of the opening of their office at Chainpur. There was no formal order of appointment. Her wages were fixed at Rs. 20 per month. Her duties included sweeping, washing of the floor of the office premises consisting of two rooms and one attached verandah and cleaning the office furniture. Besides this she was required to fetch water from a well situated at a distance of 400 yards from the Bank's office. For this extra work of fetching water she was paid an additional remuneration of Rs. 5 p.m. It is contended on behalf of the workman that this duty of sweeping and washing the floor and cleaning the furniture would take two hours per day. Since she is putting in 12 hours of work per week she is entitled to be paid one third the total wages payable to a full time member of the subordinate staff as per the Bank Awards and Bipartite Agreements. It is further complained that the management stopped her from working as a Water Carrier with effect from 1-3-78 with a view to deny her the benefit of earning higher wages. The employee herein being an illiterate woman came to realise that she was being denied her legitimate dues only in June 77. Thereafter she placed the case before the union in question who submitted a representation to the management on 6-6-77 demanding wages as per the terms of the Bipartite Settlements. Not obtaining any relief from the management the case was referred to the A.L.C. for his intervention. The joint discussions having ended in a failure, the A.L.C. submitted a failure report to the Government on receipt of which the present reference is made. On behalf of the employee the union demands payment of one third the wages due to a whole-time subordinate staff member with effect from the date of her original engagement upto date with all the consequential benefits of increments, bonus etc.

The management filed a written statement disputing inter-alia the claim made on behalf of the employee that she was working 12 hours per week and therefore entitled to claim one third of the wages due to a whole time member of the subordinate staff. They say the employee herein is not entitled to the relief claimed.

On behalf of the management the Branch Manager of their Bank at Chainpur during the period April 77 to February '79 is examined as MW-1. The parties took time till 11-12-79 to adduce further evidence. On that day Sri C. L. Bhardwaj the General Secretary of the Union on behalf of the employee and Sri C. P. Panigrahi, Personnel Officer and Sri Gowda, Sr. Regional Officer, Regional Division, New Delhi on behalf of the management appeared and filed a memo of settlement. They admitted the terms of compromise and prayed the Court to pass an award in terms thereof. After being satisfied that the terms of compromise are fair and in the interests of the employee concerned. I have recorded the same.

In the result this reference is answered in terms of the memo of settlement, a copy of which is appended hereto. The said settlement may be read as part of this Award.

P. RAMAKRISHNA, Presiding Officer.

M. Sherill and S. J. Jagdev, Advocates for the workman and of Thiru S. Jayaraman, Advocate for the Management and this dispute having stood over till this day for consideration, this Tribunal made the following.

AWARD

This is an Industrial Dispute between the workmen and the Management of Bank of Baroda, Madras-2 referred to this Tribunal for adjudication under Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 by the Government of India in Order No. L-12012/43/78-D.IIA, dated 23-11-1978 of the Ministry of Labour, in respect of the following issue:

Whether the action of the Management of Bank of Baroda, Madras in terminating the service of Shri Bakkianathan, Clerk w.e.f. 10-9-75 without holding an enquiry into the charge of misconduct in accordance with the principles of natural justice and without payment of retrenchment compensation in accordance with the provisions of Section 25F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman entitled?

(2) Facts leading up to this dispute are not in controversy. The Claimant is Thiru S. Bakkianathan. The Respondent is the Management of Bank of Baroda, Madras-2. The Claimant was originally employed as a temporary Clerk-cum-Typist by the Respondent-Management with effect from 29-11-1969 on a monthly salary of Rs. 154 plus Dearness Allowance and other allowances and later on he was confirmed and posted as a clerk on probation for a period of six months from 30-1-1970 onwards at Mount Road Branch, Madras. On a satisfactory completion of the said probation period he was confirmed on Bank's service. Later he was transferred to Purasawalkam Branch with effect from 7-11-1972 at his request. While so on 10-9-1975 under Ex. M-9, the Respondent-Management terminated the services of the Claimant from the Bank with immediate effect with three months pay and allowances on the ground of loss of confidence. In brief, the Claimant's case is that he has been dismissed from service without enquiry and that the action of the Management in dismissing him is mala fide, without jurisdiction, illegal and void-ab-initio and it would amount to victimisation and unfair labour practice and also that the dismissal has been passed in violation of service conditions prescribed in Shastri Award, Desai Award, First and Second Bipartite Settlement and in violation of the Labour laws and principles of natural justice. Therefore the claim is that the Petitioner must be deemed to be continuing in service and is entitled to reinstatement in service with back wages from 10-9-1975. The Petitioner raised an Industrial Dispute under Section 2-A of the Industrial Disputes Act to the Assistant Commissioner (Conciliation), Madras. The conciliation proceedings held by the Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central) ended in failure and Ex. W-5 is his Conciliation failure report dated 30-5-1978 and Ex. W-6 is the Minutes of Conciliation Proceedings held by him on 2-5-1978. The Government of India has referred this dispute to this Tribunal on 23-11-1978. The aforesaid reference had been taken on this Tribunal as I.D. No. 74 of 1978. The Petitioner filed his claim statement on 14-3-1979 and the Respondent-Management has filed the counter statement on 15-6-1979. In paragraph 3 of the counter statement filed by the Respondent-Management it is stated that the reference is not valid and incompetent in law. Therefore at this juncture it has to be seen whether the reference is valid and competent.

(3) Three grounds are taken by the Management to hold that the reference is incompetent. In the first place, in as much as the order of termination passed on the Petitioner on 10-9-1975 under Ex. M-9 has been superseded and rescinded by later order dated 13-10-1978 under Ex. M-10, the reference made by the Govt. with regard to the order passed on 10-9-1975 is incompetent. Secondly, the reference itself is inconsistent and finally, as the order of termination has been passed invoking Shastri Award the reference must be held to be improper. With regard to the first ground, admittedly, the order dated 10-9-1975 under Ex. M-9 is not in force on the date of reference made by the Government, viz., 23-11-1978. Learned counsel for the Respondent-Management Thiru S. Jayaraman points out that in as much as the jurisdiction of a Tribunal under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act is severely restricted and the Tribunal must confine its adjudication to the points of dispute referred to and matters incidental thereto, the Tribunal is not free to enlarge the scope of the dispute referred to it, but must confine its attention to the points specifically mentioned and any thing which is incidental thereto. There is considerable force in this submission. The basis of the reference made by the Government of India arose out of the order terminating the services of the Petitioner dated 10-9-1975 and therefore when eventually when the reference was made on 23-11-1978, that situation did not exist, it must be said that the basis for the reference made by the Government was non-existent. However, learned counsel for the Petitioner Thiru I. M. Sheriff points out that in any view, the subsequent order dated 13-10-1978 (Ex.M-10) can be considered to be only "incidental to" the earlier order Ex.M-9 dated 10-9-1975 and hence this Tribunal has jurisdiction to adjudicate the same. In support of this position, reliance is sought to be placed in a decision of Patna High Court reported in AIR. 1967 Page 90 (Employers in relation to Toposi Colliery vs. Their workmen and others). But those facts are totally different. Further, learned counsel for the Petitioner also seeks to rely on another decision of the Supreme Court reported in A.I.R. 1965 Page 1803 (Workmen of the Motipur Sugar Factory Private Limited, vs. The Motipur Sugar Factory Private Limited), where the Supreme Court has held that the scope of reference was wide and general in terms and therefore the Tribunal has jurisdiction to go into the question. However that decision also does not very much advance the claim of the Petitioner. On the other hand "matters incidental thereto" appearing in Section 10(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act has been considered in several decisions of the Supreme Court. In 1967 I.L.L.J. Page 423 (Delhi Cloth and General Mills Company Limited vs. Their workmen and others) the Supreme Court has held that "Something incidental to a dispute must, therefore, mean something happening as a result of or in connection with the dispute or associated with the dispute. The dispute is a fundamental thing while something incidental thereto is an adjunct to it. Something incidental, therefore, cannot cut at the root of the main thing to which it is an adjunct." Webster's New World Dictionary describes "Incidental" as "Happening or likely to happen as a result of or in connection with something more important; being an incident; casual, hence, secondary or minor, but usually associated." Therefore, "incidental" implies a subordinate and subsidiary thing related to some other main or principal thing requiring casual attention while considering the main thing. It is obvious, therefore, that the matters which require independent consideration or treatment and have their own importance, cannot be considered as 'incidental'. In the present context, Ex. M-9 has been passed on 10-9-75 while more than 3 years later Ex. M-10 has been passed, whereunder the claimant is given full wages upto date and also retrenchment compensation. Therefore the order under Ex. M-10 passed more than three years later cannot be considered to be incidental to the order passed under Ex. M-9. Certainly, the order under Ex. M-10 requires independent consideration and treatment and has its own merit. Furthermore, the words "incidental thereto" in Section 19(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act do not have the same meaning as the words "appearing to be connected with or relevant to" occurring in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of Section 10(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act. For instance, on an industrial dispute being referred to it, the Tribunal has jurisdiction to determine whether on the facts placed before it, an "industrial dispute" within the meaning of Section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has really arisen, or the concerned persons are "workmen" as defined in Section 2(s) of the Act, or a particular undertaking is an 'industry' within the meaning of Section 2(j) of the Act, or such industry is a live industry or a closed industry and such question can be validly examined and adjudicated upon by the Tribunal as matters incidental to the points of dispute specified in the order of reference. In 1960-II-L.L.J. Page 669 (Express Beedi Factory vs. its workers) our High Court has held that when the question referred to the Tribunal was related to leave, wages, etc., which question could arise only in a going concern and the Tribunal however found that the concern had closed down before it started the proceedings but awarded compensation for closure under Section 25-FFF. It was held that the jurisdiction of the Tribunal being confined to the matters referred to it by the Government, it would have no right to travel beyond the reference and to proceed to adjudicate upon matters not referred to it. Further more, it is well settled that where the appropriate Government referred certain specific disputes but did not refer the dispute as to the date or dates from which the workman of a particular section became the employees of the Company, it was held that the disputes relating to the date or dates of employment of such workmen could not be decided as matters incidental to the specific disputes referred for adjudication. Likewise in the present case also this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to alter the date of termination from 10-9-1975 to 13-10-1978. As I pointed out earlier both these orders under Exs. M-9 and M-10 are not identical. The Industrial Tribunal is not a court of general and residuary jurisdiction, but is a Tribunal with specific jurisdiction circumscribed by the terms of an order of reference and therefore this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to travel outside the reference and widen the scope of reference. Admittedly there is no provision in the Industrial Disputes Act vesting inherent powers in the Tribunals analogous to those expressly vested in the civil courts by Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In the face of these facts, I am constrained to hold that the order of reference by the Government referring to the order dated 10-9-1975 is incompetent.

(4) In the second place, learned counsel for the Management points out that the 1st portion of the reference and the second portion of the reference is inconsistent. The 1st portion of reference proceeds on the footing that the Petitioner's services were terminated for a misconduct without conducting an enquiry in accordance with the principles of natural justice. But the second portion of the reference proceeds on the footing on the ground that the petitioner has been retrenched without payment of retrenchment compensation in accordance with Section 25(F) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Section 25(F) makes provision for "retrenchment compensation" but this statutory compensation is permissible only to that workman who has been in fact "retrenched". If the termination of the service of the employee is not "retrenchment" within the meaning of Section 2(o)(o) he will not be entitled to the benefit of retrenchment though he may be entitled to other benefits, for instance, compensation under Section 25-FF or under Section 25-FFF. But the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to award "retrenchment compensation" to a person whose discharge from service does not constitute "retrenchment". In this view, the reference itself must be held to be inconsistent.

(5) Finally, learned counsel for the Management also points out that Petitioner was terminated on the ground of loss of confidence and therefore the present reference is incompetent. Much water has flowed under the bridge in between the order passed by the Management under Ex. M-9 on 10-9-1975 and the one under Ex. M-10 on 13-10-1978. Under Ex. M-9, the Management has clearly stated that the reason for termination of Petitioner's services was loss of confidence and therefore Petitioner was given three months pay and allowances in lieu of notice. A crossed pay order for Rs. 1,831.80 being pay and allowances in lieu of three months' notice had been received by the Petitioner. Ex. M-9 also stated that the bonus due to the Petitioner will be considered in due course and that he will also be entitled to the Provident Fund and Gratuity. The order under Ex. M-9 has been received by the Petitioner even on 10-9-75 and Ex. W-2 is the reply sent by the Petitioner on 12-9-75. After sending Ex. W-2 on 12-9-1975, Petitioner was apparently reconciled to the facts. However, two years later, the Petitioner again resuscitated the claim and issued a lawyer's notice to the Management on 19-9-1977 vide Ex. W-3. This has been promptly replied by the Management on 4-10-1977 under Ex. W-4 stating that the Petitioner is perfectly aware all the grounds on which the services had been terminated. Even after the receipt of Ex. W-4, Petitioner was not inclined to take further proceedings. Only in January, 1978, he moves Assistant Commissioner of Labour (Central), Madras on 18-1-1978. He was terminated by the Management on the ground of loss of confidence. The long in action pointed out by me on the part of the Petitioner would clearly indicate that he had perfectly reconciled himself to the bona fide action taken by the Management, because as per paragraph 522(1) of the Shastri Award, the Management is entitled to terminate the services of the employee on the ground of loss of confidence by discharging him by giving three months' notice as envisaged under paragraph 522(1) of the Shastri Award and therefore the termination of Petitioner cannot be held to be for any misconduct as such. It should also be remembered that even under Ex. M-10, the Petitioner was paid Rs. 25,128 as per the date contained therein. Under these circumstances, I uphold all the three grounds of objection raised by the Respondent Management to hold that the present reference is incompetent, invalid and improper.

(6) In the result, an Award is passed holding that the reference is incompetent. I direct the parties to bear their respective costs.

Dated, this 5th day of December, 1979.

Muralimanohar, Assistant Secretary (legal), Zonal Office, Life Insurance Corporation of India, Madras for the Management and this dispute having stood over till this day for consideration, this Tribunal made the following.

AWARD

This is an Industrial Dispute between the workmen and the Management of Life Insurance Corporation of India, Trivandrum referred to this Tribunal for adjudication under Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 by the Government of India in Order No. L-17011(3)/78-D.IV-(A), dated 17th January, 1979 of the Ministry of Labour in respect of the following issue :

“Whether the action of the Divisional Manager, Life Insurance Corporation of India, Trivandrum in treating the suspension period in respect of the following workmen from 28th February to 19th April, 1974 as period spent on privilege leave is justified?”

1. Shri E. R. Ravindran Nair
2. Shri S. Subramanian Potti
3. Shri R. Raghavan Pillai
4. Shri S. Chidambaram
5. Shri L. R. Parameswaran
6. Shri S. Ayappan.

(2) Facts leading up to this dispute are as follows :

The General Secretary, Life Insurance Corporation Employees' Union, Trivandrum has filed the claim statement. The Respondent-Management is the Divisional Manager Life Insurance Corporation of India, Trivandrum-4, Kerala State. In response to a call issued by the All India Insurance Employees Association to which the Petitioner Union is affiliated the employees of Life Insurance Corporation of India were agitating for the realisation of the charter of demands during the end of 1973 and early 1974. Therefore the Respondent-Management suspended number of employees who participated in this agitation. Included in these suspended employees are the six employees who are mentioned in the schedule to the reference made by the Government of India to this Tribunal. It may be remembered that out of these six employees, employee Nos. 1 to 5 are Assistants while employee No. 6 is subordinate staff. Further, employee No. 1 Shri E.R. Ravindran Nair is the President and employee No. 2 Shri S. Subramanian is the Secretary and employee No. 4 Shri S. Chidambaram is the Joint Secretary of the Petitioner-Union. All of them were suspended from 8-1-1974. All the suspension orders are identical. Ex. W-1 is the suspension order issued to Shri R. Raghavan Pillai. Subsequently, the charge-sheets were also issued to these employees on 18-1-1974 and 19-1-1974. While so on 24-1-1974, an agreement was entered into between the Life Insurance Corporation of India and Employees' Association under Ex. M-3. Ex. M-3 contains the short recital of the controversy terms of settlement and also list of agreed points. Item No. 4 of list of agreed points are as follows :

“All cases of disciplinary action, including suspensions which have arisen from the current spell of agitation (excluding those which have arisen from acts of indiscipline which have no connection with the agitation) will be reviewed by the competent authority. Where the misconduct relates to holding meetings within office premises without prior permission or shouting slogans within office premises, the competent authority will lift the suspension immediately and drop further proceedings. In all other cases, suspension will be lifted by the competent authority only if the employee concerned agrees that he shall proceed on leave from the date the order of suspension is revoked and shall continue remain on such leave as may be admissible to him till the disciplinary proceedings against him are over. In those cases, after the suspension is lifted disciplinary action under the Staff Regulations will be proceeded with expeditiously.”

On the basis of this aforesaid specific agreement, the Respondent-Management revoked the suspension orders of all its employees excepting the six employees who are mentioned in the schedule to the reference made by the Government of India to this Tribunal. While so, the Union had taken up the cause of these six employees with the Respondent-Management and Sri Sunil Maitra, one of the Joint Secretaries of the Life Insurance Employees Association of India had discussions with the Management and as a result of which suspension of these six employees were also revoked and charges were dropped. Pursuant to this discussion, each of these six employees addressed similar letters to the Management requesting them to revoke the suspension orders and drop the charge-sheet. Exs. M-9 and M-12 series are the letters written by these six employees to the Respondent-Management on 19-4-1974. On receipt of these letters of request by those six employees, under Ex. M-4 series even on the same day, viz., 19-4-1974, the Respondent-Management decided to revoke the order of suspension and dropped further proceedings on the charge-sheet issued to these employees. However, the Respondent-Management reserved the question as to how the period of suspension is to be treated by the Management. All the six employees had agreed to the terms offered by the Management under Ex. M-4 series and in token thereof they have signed in the order Ex. M-4 series. The Respondent-Management considered this question and eventually passed an order on 2-9-1974; one such order is marked as Ex. W-5. The Management has treated 50 per cent of the suspension period as on duty and the other 50 per cent as leave. The Union took up the issue that the entire period of suspension should be treated as 'on duty'. Pursuant to the decision of the Management, the Management advised these employees to put an application for privilege leave for the period from 28-2-1974 to 19-4-1974, a sample of which is marked as Ex. W-6. The Management eventually passed final orders in August, 1977 treating the period of suspension from 8-1-1974 to 19-4-1974 as follows : “51 days as on duty and 51 days on privilege leave.” The claim of the Union is that the Management has discriminated these six employees and singled them out, out of 24 employees who are suspended by the Management in connection with the agitation on the charter of demands and therefore this issue has been referred to this Tribunal by the Government of India. Even at this stage I may point out that the order of reference does not give any jurisdiction to pass any suitable orders in case the treatment of suspension period of these employees from 28-2-1974 to 19-4-1974 is held to be unjustified. On behalf of the Management, it is pointed out that even the Government of India was perfectly aware of the limited jurisdiction of the Tribunal and therefore did not call for any order from this Tribunal even in case the order passed is held to be unjustified.

(3) Ex. M-2 is the Life Insurance Corporation of India Staff Regulations, 1960 as modified upto 7th August, 1971. In A.I.R. 1975 (S.C.) Page 1331 (Sukhdev Singh and others vs. Bhagatram Sardar Singh Raghuvanshi and another), the Supreme Court has held that the Staff Regulations Ex. M.2 are statutory and therefore the regulations of Ex. M-2 are binding both on the Respondent-Corporation and its employees as any other law. Regulation 38 of Ex. M-2 deals with treatment of the period of suspension. Thus, as far as the action of the Management is concerned, is a decision relating to the discipline of the Corporation. Therefore, the learned authorised representative for the Respondent-Corporation submits that this Tribunal will have no jurisdiction to substitute its own judgement for that of the disciplinary, appellate or reviewing authority as contemplated under Regulation 38 of the Staff Regulations Ex.M-2. The Union is also conscious that the Staff Regulations Ex. M-2 have the force of law and therefore once decisions are made under the Regulation 38 of Ex.M-2 this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to review the order passed by the Corporation or sit in judgement over the aforesaid order. However, on behalf of the Union it is pointed out that the Divisional Manager, Trivandrum who is the disciplinary authority under Regulation 38 of Ex.M-2 has not independently exercised his jurisdiction but that he has been swayed by instructions from the Head Quarters in Delhi. Ex.M-1 is a circular issued by the Life Insurance Corporation of India (Central Office) to all Zonal and Divisional Managers of Life Insurance Corporation of India containing instructions as to how to treat the period of strike and lock out in cases of disciplinary action. It may be noted that Ex.M-1 is dated 12-2-1974. Although the terms of Ex.M-1 may be said to be general yet the hard fact remains that the disciplinary authority, viz., Divisional Manager, Life Insurance Corporation of India, Trivandrum did not exercise independent consideration on the question as to how to treat the period under suspension. Several authorities have held that where a given authority under law does not of its own accord exercise that authority but is bound and directed and guided by other exterior authority certainly the decision of this authority cannot be held to be the decision of the disciplinary authority. For one example I will extract a portion from Ex.W-6. "The Central Office after examining the records relating to your suspension, have now advised us that half the period of your suspension may be treated as period spent on duty and the other half may be treated as Privilege Leave, as proposed in our letter dated 2nd September, 1974". Therefore it is patent that the decision of disciplinary authority, viz., Divisional Manager, Trivandrum was not his decision, but has been prompted from the Central Office. In that view, the Divisional Manager, viz., the Respondent herein has clearly abdicated his discretionary power vested in him by law. In this view there is considerable force in the claim of the Union that the Central Office has usurped the power supplanting the decision of the Divisional Manager who is the disciplinary authority. Hence I hold that the decision of the Respondent-Management is not legal and therefore this decision is set aside. Of Course it is competent for the Respondent-Management to consider the claim of these employees on merits without being guided by the Central Office from the above.

(4) In the result, an Award is passed holding that the order passed treating the period of suspension of this six employees by the Divisional Manager, Trivandrum is illegal and without jurisdiction. Of course it is open to him to pass suitable orders on merits unguided by any extraneous considerations. If however, the present Divisional Manager, Trivandrum happens to be the same person who had passed the aforesaid order, the Corporation may direct any other Divisional Manager in India to dispose of the matter according to the law. In the peculiar circumstances I direct the parties to bear their respective costs.

On the other hand, the burden of his work is lightened. If however, the Applicant thinks that his service conditions had been altered to his detriment, it is open to him to raise an Industrial Dispute if so advised.

(4) In the result, an Award is passed dismissing the claim, No costs.
